PYTHIANS GRATEFUL FOR CITY COURTESIES

As Shown by Resolutions
Adopted by Grand Lodge of the State.

Resolutions as follows were passed by the state Pythians before they ended their annual convention here Friday evening:

RESOLUTION I.

Whereas, The citizens of the city of Clarksburg, W. Va., and their official head, Mayor Cole, have presented to the forty-fourth annual convention of the Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias of the grand domain of West Virginia the key to their city and its unbounded hospitality and good cheer.

Be it resolved: That said convention extend to the citizenship, individually and collectively, a most hearty and sincere vote of thanks for their generous welcome, continued courtesy while assembled within their gates and their gratuitous service of automobiles during parades and other occasions.

Be it further resolved: That we especially appreciate and gratefully acknowledge as a glowing tribute to our order the many and beautiful decorations which greet our eyes upon every hand.

Be it further resolved: That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the convention and a copy be sent to Mayor Cole and to each of the city newspapers.

RESOLUTION II.

Whereas, The hospitality of Clarksburg Lodge, No. 39, and the general committee of arrangements has been unbounded and their efforts in behalf of the convention have been untiring.

Be it resolved: That this convention extend its most sincere thanks and grateful appreciation to them for all of their sacrifice, labor and kindness.

Be it further resolved: That these resolutions be made a part of the minutes of the convention and a copy be sent to the Clarksburg Lodge and to the chairman of the general committee of arrangements.

RESOLUTION III.

Whereas, Lodge No. 482, Benevolent Protective Order of Elks of the city of Clarksburg have magnanimously thrown open the doors of their magnificently appointed Elks Home that we might hold our Grand Lodge convention within its walls.

Be it resolved: That the Grand Lodge of Knights of Pythias of the grand domain of West Virginia extend to them our most sincere thanks for their hospitality.

Be it further resolved: That we appreciate beyond measure of expression this exemplification of their broad minded benevolent and fraternal spirit.

Be it further resolved: That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the convention and that a copy of the same be sent to our hospitable host.

RESOLUTION IV.

Whereas, The splendid press of the city of Clarksburg has generously extended to this convention a most courteous, liberal and loyal support which has contributed so materially to the success of this convention.

Be it resolved: That the Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias of the grand domain of West Virginia express their most heartfelt appreciation of their courtesy.

Be it further resolved: That these resolutions be made a part of the minutes of this convention and that a copy be sent to each newspaper of the city.

RESOLUTION V.

Whereas, Grand Chancellor and Mrs. W. Frank Stout so handsomely extended to the Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias and the Pythian Sisters and the Uniform Rank the charming hospitality of their beautiful country home on the evening of the first day of our convention.

Be it resolved: That we extend to them a vote of thanks for this their magnificent courtesy.

Be it further resolved: That we assure them that we appreciate this as but another evidence of their devotion to our grand order and its sister organization and that it came as a delightful climax to the great work which Grand Chancellor Stout has accomplished in behalf of the order during the last year.

Be it further resolved: That these resolutions be incorporated in the minutes of this convention and that a copy of the same be sent to Grand Chancellor and Mrs. Stout.

RESOLUTION VI.

Whereas, The labors of all the Grand Lodge officers and committees has been untiring.

Be it resolved by the members of this Grand Lodge that their services have been greatly appreciated and commended.

Be it further resolved: That these resolutions be made a part of the minutes.

RESOLUTION VII.

Whereas, The Burroughs Adding Machine Company through their manager, J. R. Russell, loaned the Grand Lodge a machine for the use of this convention.

Be it resolved: That the most hearty and grateful thanks of this body assembled be extended to this company and their manager for this courtesy.

Be it further resolved: That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the convention and that a copy be sent to Manager Russell.

RESOLUTION VIII.

Whereas, Through the generosity of Col. A. G. Hauriet and his chief, Mr. Hunt, a most artistic souvenir badge has been presented to each member of this convention.

Be it resolved: That we extend to these gentlemen our most grateful thanks for these beautiful badges.

Be it further resolved: That we express our appreciation of the untiring activities of Col. Hauriet during the preparations for and the progress of this convention.

Be it further resolved: That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the convention and a copy be sent to Col. Hauriet.

RESOLUTION IX.

Whereas, The ladies of our sister organization, the Pythian Sisters, have not only encouraged us along and wished us Godspeed in our proceedings, but extended to us an invitation to their annual reception.

Be it resolved: That we extend to them a rising vote of appreciation for their interest in our welfare and a "God bless them" in the work of their great organization.

Be it further resolved: That these resolutions be incorporated in the minutes of this convention and a copy be sent to the G. M. of R. and C. of the Pythian Sisters.

LAST SERVICE.

The last union service for this summer will be held at the court house at 7 p. m. Sunday. The sermon will be by the Rev. W. M. Long, pastor of the Central Christian church.
